

Lamentations 3 18 - 24

E A/E
So I say, "My splendour is gone
G/E F/E E
And all that I had hoped from the LORD."
E A/E
I remember my affliction
G/E F/E E
And my wandering, The bitterness and the gall.
A/E E G/E F/E E
I well remember them, And my soul is downcast within me.
E A B E A B
Yet this I call to mind And therefore I have hope:
B A G#m
Because of the LORD's great love
G#m F#m G#m
Because of the LORD's great love
G#m A G#m
Because of the LORD's great love
F#m E
We are not consumed,
E A B
For his compassions never fail.
A G#m F#m
They are new every morning; Great is your faithfulness.
A G#m F#m
They are new every morning; Great is your faithfulness.
A G#m F#m
They are new every morning; Great is your faithfulness.
E A E
I say to myself, "The LORD is my portion;
G/E F/E E
Therefore I will wait for him."

Refrain
E A E
Because of the LORD's great love We are not consumed,
A
For his compassions never fail.
E A E
Because of the LORD's great love We are not consumed,
A
They are new every morning;
E A E
Because of the LORD's great love We are not consumed,
A (F# - last tme)
Great is your faithfulness.

E A E
I say to myself, "The LORD is my portion;
G/E F/E E
Therefore I will wait for him."
